ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The main purpose of the seminar...

... is to offer the opportunity to experience and learn more about how distance learning of adults (in more specific those who have reached the age above 50) from rural areas is organized in Slovenia.

Additionally...

... to show examples of various local projects enhancing the development of rural areas at the single village level up to the local action group and national levels.

Participants...

... are members/trainers of partner institutions and their trainees.
